

April 25, 2017

The School Improvement team is in the process of surveying teachers, students, alumni and parents to help guide our goal of continuing to look at ways we can continuously improve instruction. The surveys are based on questions provided by AdvancedEd. The team will use the information as a means in helping us triangulate data as we work through the AdvancedEd process for school improvement at Aquinas.